

Do not weaken the No Call List, We still get a call now and then but it is alot better than it use to be. Giving Banks or other business an exemption or an extended time period will weaken the program. Business has enough avenues to advertise and get the word out. Leave my phone for my own personal use not to be bothered by listening to advertising, etc.